Chapter 1 by Story Wars

My feet pound harshly on the frozen soil beneath my heels. I dodge every tree that's in my way. Screams sound out ahead of me. Those of people I know. I need to save them. I need to save all of them.

"ALEX!!!" I hear my name yelled. I turn, my hair turns with me and covers my face. I pull my bangs out of the way and look frantically around to see if I can find who screamed. It was so loud, and so screechy that I couldn't identify the voice in my head. I'd have to see their face to know.

Finally. I see him. He stands ahead of me. A smirk graces his lips, but his eyes are hidden in the tree's shadows.

I take a step back and my heart starts pounding faster than it was a couple seconds before. Any harder and I'll be put under cardiac arrest.

He chuckles, "They're fine," he says.

I shake my head, "They're never fine!" I snap. "You've killed them before, I know you'll do it again!"

He takes another step forward, now I can see his eyes. No pupils. They're pure white. At the placed on my thigh. I grip my knife handle and start pulling out of the holster, putting it down letting my arm rest, but still tense.

Vincent rolls his eyes, "I'm not gonna hurt you," he says, "You can come back to the Pizzeria... I've got a surprise for you."

I take a cautious step towards him, but I don't let him touch me. I walk behind him, holding my knife protectively in my hand. The Fazbear Fright's about to begin.
